

You can make the proof of your means of subsistence with one of the following documents: statement of bank account, individual tax return or other equivalent documents.
The amount you must own is the equivalent of the minimum national net wage, for the entire validity period of the residence permit.