

Civil status documents (usually the birth certificate) in copy and original are only required if you have to prove the Romanian origin. Civil status documents must be translated and authenticated (and over-legalized / authenticated, depending on the issuing state of the document).