

The certificate issued by the organization performing the pupil/student exchange must attest that it undertakes the liability to provide accommodation, means of subsistence and possible costs for removing the pupils/students involved in the action off the Romanian territory.