

The documents must show that the company carried out a capital contribution or technology transfer of at least 50.000 Euro, according to the conditions stipulated in art. 69, par. 1, lett. d, point iv.

At subsequent extensions you must prove that the capital contribution has resulted in the development or acquisition of buildings for carrying out activities under the National Classification of Activities on the National Economy or in technology transfer.