

For the following categories of persons, the request addressed to the diplomatic missions or consular offices no longer receives the approval of the General Inspectorate for Immigration. If you find yourself in the list below, the visa settlement period will be shorter by 7 working days:

- foreigners married to Romanian citizens;
- foreign minor children of Romanian citizens;
- foreigners holding a residence permit valid in one of the Member States of the European Union, the European Economic Area or in the states party to the Schengen Agreement, without the validity of the visa exceeding the validity of the residence permit;
- foreigners holding a residence permit valid in states for which citizens are not required to have a visa to enter the Member States of the European Union, the European Economic Area or the states party to the Schengen Agreement;
- foreigners who have applied in the state border crossing document visas of the member states of the European Union, the European Economic Area, of the states parties to the Schengen Agreement or of the states for whose citizens there is no visa requirement to enter these states. The Romanian visa cannot exceed the validity of this visa;
- foreigners to come to Romania for business purposes, at the request of the administrative authorities, as well as of the companies regulated by Law no. 31/1990, republished, with subsequent amendments and completions, which are included in the lists of taxpayers to the state budget, established by order of the President of the National Agency for Fiscal Administration, published in the Official Gazette of Romania, and which assumes, through a letter of guarantee originally addressed to the National Visa Center, the obligation to bear the costs of material, medical and enforcement removal measures;
- foreigners who are coming to Romania for the purpose of visiting, at the request of diplomatic missions or foreign consular offices accredited in Romania;
- foreigners for whom a visa has been requested, in writing, at diplomatic missions or consular offices, from the central public authorities or foreign chambers of commerce;
- the persons for whom the visa was requested at the National Visa Center from the following Romanian institutions: the Presidential Administration, the Parliament, the Government and other central and local public authorities, the Chamber of Commerce and Industry of Romania and Bucharest, as well as the territorial ones and the prefectures, which assume the obligation to bear the costs of material, medical and execution of removal measures, by a letter of guarantee sent in the original;
- truck drivers;
- personalities from the Romanian diaspora and their descendants;
- the parents of foreign pupils or students accepted for studies in Romania, who arrive for their first installation, subject to the presentation of an apostille document, or, as the case may be, superlegalized, issued by the authorities of the state of origin to certify the kinship.
- foreigners who are to come to Romania at the request of a legal person of public interest, who works legally and who assumes the obligation to bear the expenses regarding the material, medical and execution of the removal measures, through a letter of guarantee originally addressed to the National Visa Center.
